

- Protect key agriculture and forestry land and support food production for domestic and export markets
- Maintain access to sand resources for the construction industry
- Protect the transport network to retain and enhance access to employment and export markets
- Public land
- Protect the Macalister Irrigation District as a key asset for horticulture and dairy production
- Retain brown coal reserves for derivatives and future use in low-emissions power generation
- Electricity transmission line (500 kV)
- Lakes
- Support tourism opportunities associated with environment and landscape attractions
- Energy generation and potential for carbon capture and storage
- Australian Paper Maryvale
- Victorian Desalination Plant
- Support growth of commercial fishing
- Future export opportunity from the Port of Hastings
- Longford gas plant
- Gas reserve
- Organic recycling facility
- Oil reserve

Urban economic opportunities within the Gippsland region

- Diverse commercial centres supporting healthcare, retail, manufacturing and professional services
- Focus for low-carbon energy industry propelling innovation and investment across the region
- Tourism opportunities associated with environment and landscape attractions
- Food manufacturing hubs that add value to local agricultural products
- Opportunities to increase defence industries and training

Schematic representation
Not to scale

©The State of Victoria, Department of Transport, Planning and Local Infrastructure, 2014. The State of Victoria does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of information in this publication and any person using or relying upon such information does so on the basis that the State of Victoria shall bear no responsibility or liability whatsoever for any errors, faults, defects or omissions in the information.